

for a living planet®

Appendix 2 – Outstanding Climateers’ cases

Housewives (WWF Climateers Ambassador)	Carbon footprint (using WWF carbon footprint calculator)	Low-carbon action
Ms. Ha Jie & Ms. Dorie Kwok (mother and daughter)	--9.57 tons --promote low-carbon living to their friends	--conserve water --low-carbon cooking --planting herbs at home --hand wash clothes --no air conditioning for a year --educating daughter
Ms. Fung Yuk Lin	--3.74 tons --promote low-carbon living to her friends	--recycling as much as she can --only operate the washing machine at full load --conserve water

Youth (WWF Climateers Ambassador)	Carbon footprint (using WWF carbon footprint calculator)	Low-carbon action
Ms. Silvia Choi (Post 80's)	--6.07 tons --promote low-carbon living to her friends	--no air conditioning for a year --say no to standby for electrical appliances --walk to cut down carbon emissions from transport --concerned about environment throughout the years
Ah Wai (Post 80's)	--5.57 tons --promote low-carbon living to his friends	--recycling as much as she can --say no to standby for electrical appliances --using fan to complement air conditioner
Kim (Post 90's JPC leader)	--5.57 tons --promote low-carbon living to his friends  <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mai Po PTI: Active in sharing climate change impacts to wetland and birds (pelicans) in his interpretation service at Mai Po Nature Reserve</li> <li>• Deeply concerned about climate change impacts to marine environment and corals, and wish to take on further study on the subject and work in environmental conservation field</li> </ul>	--walk more --reduced use of air conditioner --spread the message